APPENDIX.

Sec. 8853. Signals at railroad crossings.

Every company shall attach to each locomotive engine passing upon its road, a bell of the ordinary size in use on such engines, and a steam whistle. When an engine in motion and approaching a turnpike, highway or town road crossing or private crossing where the view of such crossing is obstructed by embankment, trees, curve or other obstruction to view, upon the same line therewith, and in like manner where the road crosses any other traveled place, by bridge or otherwise, the engineer or person in charge thereof, shall sound such whistle at a distance of at least eighty and not further than one hundred rods from such crossing, and ring such bell continuously until the engine passes the crossing.

Sec. 8855. Penalties for violation of preceding section.

Every engineer or person in charge of such engine who fails to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be personally liable to a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered by civil action, at the suit of the state, in the court of common pleas of a county wherein there is such a crossing.

Sec. 8856. Liability of company.

The company in whose employ such engineer or person in charge of an engine is, as well as the person himself, shall be liable in damages to a person or company injured in person or property by such neglect or act of such engineer or person.
